CONDITIONS OF USE

The San Diego History Center retains all rights to the images and documents it reproduces. The applicant may not reproduce or permit others to reproduce this material either traditionally or electronically without written permission. Additional copies must be purchased from the San Diego History Center.

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing. Permission is limited to the applicant; it is non-transferable and not granted until all fees are paid.

All responsibility for possible copyright infringement, invasion of privacy, and rights of publicity from the use of the reproduction(s) is assumed by the applicant.

All reproductions must be credited as follows: San Diego History Center or © San Diego History Center, as specified, in a caption or credit.

Credits should appear in close proximity to the reproduction, or in a special section devoted to credits containing the page number where it appears.

Altering the reproduction beyond standard cropping or resizing requires further discussion with the SDHC staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption or label.

Applicant agrees to provide the San Diego History Center with one copy of the work containing the reproduction.

All sales are final.

Your fees assist in the preservation of our collections. Thank you for your support!

NOTICE

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the U.S. (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
