

San Diego History Center's Community Historian Program

Topics presented by SDHC Volunteers and Education Staff:

Settling the Mission and Presidio

Old Town- It Was Once San Diego!

Old Town to New Town- The Development of San Diego

Visions of Paradise: Hope Rides the Rails (San Diego expansion)

Land Use in San Diego: Beef to Blossoms

Balboa Park: The Jewel of San Diego

The San Diego River: Living with Our Unpredictable Resource

Dam the Water and Pray for Rain

History of San Diego: It's All About Diversity

Our Cities, Our Neighborhoods: Hillcrest- A Town to Call Home

Topics presented by SDHC Volunteer Linda Canada:

Legacies of the Past (Aspects of San Diego reflected in man-made features, including streets, neighborhood landmarks, and other physical reminders of the past.)

San Diego during WWI: A Distant War

Between the Wars: Sleepy Town to Military City

San Diego During WWII: On the Homefront

Women I Wish I'd Known

Becoming Scripps Ranch

Citrus Soap Company and its Transition to City Front Terrace

