

CAMPAIGN & DONOR RELATIONS COORDINATOR

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Campaign and Donor Relations Coordinator is responsible for supporting the leadership, direction, and strategic management for corporate, individual, and foundation giving strategies to fulfill the mission and vision of the San Diego History Center. The Campaign and Donor Relations Coordinator will execute the day-to-day planning, coordination, management and operation of the capital campaign. This aspect of this position is both strategic and tactical, incorporating all components of a campaign from the leadership gift phase through the completion of the community phase. The Campaign and Donor Relations Coordinator will be responsible for shaping donor stewardship efforts, deepening the prospective donor pipeline, and maintaining accurate and up to date information on campaign and organization goals, donors, and prospects. This full-time exempt position reports to the CEO and will have extensive interaction with the Board of Trustees and volunteer campaign committee. This position will be based at the San Diego History Center's Balboa Park museum and will require a minimum of 4 days on site with 1 day as potential remote work.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist in development and execution of strategies for cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship of new and current campaign donors.
- Craft targeted funding proposals in coordination with staff and campaign leadership.
- Provide campaign updates and numerical analysis to campaign leadership, Board of Directors, and campaign committee.
- Serve as staff liaison to campaign committee; prepare and conduct follow up for meetings, train and organize volunteers for donor interaction.
- Work with campaign leadership and campaign committee to ensure prompt follow up to close gifts and steward donors.
- Research all prospects, including detailed background information, giving history, personal interests, and request strategies using a data-driven approach.
- Schedule campaign-related meetings and prepare agendas.
- Manage content development for campaign communications including print and digital collateral in collaboration with staff.
- Maintain a comprehensive campaign timeline and progress activity report; recommend revisions to fundraising plan, as needed, to achieve goals.
- Devise and manage logistics for cultivation and recognition events, coordinating publicity as appropriate, in partnership with the CEO.
- Maintain annotated table of gifts and list recognition opportunities.
- Ensure donor meeting, research, and follow up information is captured in organization's database.
- Serve as main point of contact for donor and staff questions regarding capital campaign.
- Attend team and organizational meetings, activities, and events as required.

EXPERIENCE, KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES SOUGHT:

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent successful experience
- Minimum 5 years in fundraising, capital campaign experience preferred.
- Fundraising field experience, including successful major fundraising campaigns and donor stewardship programs.
- Experience with donor identification, cultivation, solicitation, and building robust relationships with gifts of six figures and greater.
- Knowledge of planned gifts and endowments.
- Manage and execute projects with high-quality, on time, under pressure, and with diplomacy.
- Effective communication, listening, and interpersonal skills; be able to tell a story with passion and make complex ideas and topics understandable and relatable.
- Unremitting optimism and positive attitude.
- Dedication to a culture of philanthropy and institutional success.
- Desire to support the work of others, including both staff and volunteers, toward the accomplishment of strategic goals.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office as well as donor database management.
